NASH, HUDSON MERGER OK'D

Auto, Rebuilt Divisions to Keep Separate Identities

DETROIT, Jan. 14.—The consolidation of Nash-Kelvinator Corporation and Hudson Motor Car Company was approved today by directors of the companies subject to stockholder approval. Stockholder meetings will be held in March.
The resulting corporation will be known as American Motors Corporation with combined assets of more than $200,000,000.
Under the plan, Nash-Kelvinator and Hudson will operate as separate divisions of American Motors. The order and sales corporations will retain their separate identities.

It was contemplated that A.
H. Nash, president of Hudson, will serve as a director and chairman and George W.
Mason, president and board chairman of Nash-Kelvinator, as president and board chairman of American Motors.

Under the agreement, three shares of Hudson stock will be converted into two shares of American Motors stock and each share of Nash-Kelvinator stock will constitute one share of American Motors.

meymoon to Be Brief; Both Get to Jobs Again posed questions of his fiancée

"All right, follow," he said at last. "I don't want to rush you, but we've got to get on with the ceremony."

The bride, who was raised in an orphanage and had 11 of false parents, seemed amused by reporters asking whether she planned to give up investigating her humbugging
"When distance does it make? I'm surprised," she commented, giving a little look to one of her pretty lips.

"This is no time to talk about suspensions," DiMaggio interrupted. "We got to get on with it. We got to get a lot of things done."

What were they going to do about the marriage?

DiMaggio smiled.
"Well, don't. Don't and don't be silly."

The judge's chambers were filled with reporters and photographers. The judge was a man of about 50, with a friendly face. He was wearing a dark suit and tie.
He was looking at the bride and groom with a smile.

Ton of Money Buys This Hief, I to 10 in Prison

Setting a ton of money to a chief of police, Harold V. Perkins admitted yesterday to Superior Judge Harold V.
Perkins.

Especially when it is a chief of police, the judge said, the plenty of money is a good thing. He said he had seen many cases where a chief of police had been bought.
